

INLAND WATERWAY

Facts:

- 150 miles of shoreline, approximately 38 miles of rivers/lakes
- dredged to 5 foot, width of 30 feet by U.S. Corps. of Engineers (subject to shoaling)
- route completely laid out with channel markers;
river entrances marked with flashing lights
- accessible from I-75, US-27, M-33 and US-31
- ramps with varying water depths available all along the waterway
- 2 state parks along the route, Aloha State Park, on Mullett Lake, and Burt Lake State Park, on Burt Lake, and 1 state forest campground at Maple Bay on Burt Lake

U.S. Government Chart # 14886 of this Michigan Inland Route is available for purchase at the Marina.

APPROXIMATE DISTANCE BETWEEN DOTS
• 1 MILE •

